

This Week @

10-6-24

Today we talked about:

☆ Yom Kippur: the story of Jonah

☆ Lesson 2:

Hebrew letters alef א (silent), ayin ע (silent) and bet ב (B).

אָבאָ aba = father

עַם am = the Jewish people

Every syllable has a consonant (letter) and a vowel.
Some syllables have two consonants and a vowel.
Some words have more than one syllable.

Lex: Tishrei 11

homework

Homework is Lesson 2 in the homework folder.

If you ever misplace the folder or need another copy of a page, you can print one out from our website. Click the picture of the textbook to see the PDF of all the homework pages.

No school next week, October 13

Simchat Torah and consecration: October 20th

G'mar Hatima Tova
May you be sealed in the Book of Life

Mrs. Gallo